Holiday fun at Turtle River State Park

While enjoying the holidays make a trip to Turtle River State Park for some winter fun. Explore the park with park staff to see what's sleeping through winter's chill, create a sweet-smelling cinnamon ornament and have fun sledding.

Stop by between 10 a.m. and 12 p.m. at the Chalet/Warming House on Monday, Dec. 30 to meet the naturalist. During the snow season the Chalet/Warming House is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., seven days a week. Contact the park or visit the North Dakota Parks and Recreation website www.parkrec.nd.gov to check the status of groomed ski trails.

For more information, call (701) 594-4445, or find Turtle River State Park at www.parkrec.nd.gov. Turtle River State Park is 22 miles west of Grand Forks, ND, on Highway 2.
